

Legislation Fixing Minimum Salary for Teacher Advanced

Illinois Legislature Acts on Number of Bills Yesterday

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—(AP)—Legislation providing that public school teachers in Illinois could be paid a salary of not less than $100 per school month was passed 84 to 3 by the house of representatives last night. The bill, backed by teachers' and labor organizations, advanced to the senate.

Rep. Henry D. Sparks (R-Shelbyville) attacked the bill as "impractical socialist legislation." Reps. W. O. Edwards (D-Danville) and Robert H. Allison (R-Pekin) defended the proposed pay minimum as reasonable, and argued that the legislature, having set salary minimums for policemen and firemen in Illinois cities, should do the same for teachers.

The senate adjourned until next Tuesday without acting on an administration oil conservation measure whose passage chances appeared slim after one of its Republican sponsors disowned it and announced he would join the opposition, which last week blocked the bill.

Senators Charles F. Carpenter (R-East Moline) and John J. Parish (D-Centralia), remaining co-sponsors after the withdrawal of Senator George C. Armstrong (R-Lawrenceville), said they might call the bill for another vote next week. They declined comment on reports from some Republicans that it would be "junked" for this session.

Vote Interest Boost
On the senate's small loans investigating committee recommendation, a bill to allow banks and other money-lending agencies operating under the state interest act to charge a maximum of 12 per cent per year instead of seven on small loans, was passed 29 to 10 and sent to the house.

The senate then went on a bill-passing spree and sent to the house legislation providing for compulsory physical education in public schools, a legislative committee to investigate rationing of fuel oil, gasoline and other petroleum products, and a legislative commission to arrange for a celebration of the 125th anniversary, December 3, 1943, of Illinois' admission to the Union.

Just as quickly the senate passed house-approved bills and sent them to the governor for signature. Among these were 1943-45 appropriations for the departments of mines and minerals, public works and buildings, and insurance, and the governor's office. Also included were bills authorizing the state auditor to license and regulate currency exchanges, and the Cutler series transferring administration of the state security hospital at Menard from the public safety to the welfare department.

Financial News

New York, June 19.—(AP)—Remington Rand, Inc., in its annual report says production last year was at the highest rate in the concern's history with total sales up 19 per cent over the preceding 12 months.

Net profit, as previously reported, was $4,218,566, or $2 a common share, for the year ended March 31, compared with $5,195,414, or $3.08 a share, in the preceding year. Total direct taxes were $13,241,962 last year, compared with $9,917,771 in the previous period.

The Worthington Pump & Machinery Corp. has sharply reduced dividend accumulations on the senior stock by declaring $17.50 a share on the class "A" $7 preferred and $15 a share on the class "B" $6 preferred. Both are payable July 1 to stock of record June 26.

On April 1 payments of $14 a share on the "A" and $12 a share on the "B" were ordered. Counting today's dividends, accumulations were reduced to $33.25 a share on the $7 stock and to $28.50 on the $6 issue.

The Celotex Corporation reports net earnings for the six months ended April 30, 1943, after all charges and taxes, amounted to $481,657.23, or 83 cents a share on the common stock, compared with $518,012.76, or 69 cents for the corresponding period a year ago.

Juan T. Trippe, president of Pan American Airways Corp., says in the annual report that 1942 had been the most important period financially in the 15-year history of the corporation with business in excess of $109,000,000. Miles flown increased more than 80 per cent to 43,939,744, compared with 24,358,346 in 1941. Net income after taxes and deductions, was $3,780,014, or $1.95 a common share, compared with $3,361,251, or $1.73 a share in 1941.

Trippe reported yesterday that commercial services essential in war or peace, such as passenger, air mail and air express, had continued in addition to war services, such as training military personnel in operating large aircraft and constructing airports and other facilities in foreign countries.

His report disclosed that his passengers carried by Clippers on war missions in 1942 were President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands and King George of Greece.

Pacific division personnel and facilities were being widely expanded, Trippe said, adding that in China Pan America's partnership national company, China National Aviation Corp., operated the only scheduled air transport service within the country and has been called China's aerial lifeline.

Trippe re-emphasized that post-war air transportation could not be merely a luxury service for carrying well-to-do passengers at high prices, adding the company had started a program two years ago for constructing giant Clippers.

"Each of these planes, for example," Trippe said, "would be capable of carrying 153 passengers from New York to London in 10 hours at a fare of $100."

Brother Wounded In Action

Thomas O'Neil, brother of Mrs. Hugh Hermes, is expected home on leave in a few weeks, after being wounded in action in the battle of Attu. Frank O'Neil, father of the boy, received a letter from his son, who is in the hospital recovering from gunshot wounds. Tom was in the first assault wave to hit the island and took part in the fight two days before he was wounded. His scapula was fractured, two ribs shattered and his spine injured. He lost considerable blood crawling to the rear, the first aid station being over a mile back. His right side was temporarily paralyzed. He was removed to a hospital ship and immediately operated upon and is now able to be up and around. O'Neil is to receive the Purple Heart for bravery in battle. He is the son of P. J. O'Neil of Deer Grove and a nephew of Mrs. Charles Miller.

Hollywood News

This is the story of a girl doctors said would never be able to face an audience again—a girl born and bred to act who spent seven months in a hospital before she dared look in a mirror. She made her stage debut at three. Her father was the leading man, her mother the leading lady of an eastern stock company. It wasn't long before she became one of America's brightest stars of the legitimate stage. And then came tragedy—tragedy in the form of a kettle of grease on a kitchen stove. Inexperienced in the kitchen, she threw a pan of water on the stove when the grease suddenly caught fire. There was an explosion and the career of one of America's foremost stage stars nearly came to an end.

Her face was horribly burned. Doctors despaired of ever repairing her facial beauty. But they did, in a miracle of modern surgery. Then her star shone brighter than ever—85 weeks on Broadway.

way in "Personal Appearance." Then motion pictures—"Valiant Is the Word for Carrie," "They Gave Him a Gun," "The Hard Way," "The Molteni Falcon" and "The Crystal Ball." The girl doctors said would never be able to face an audience again, but who came out of that accident without a single scar—Gladys George.

Adopted American

He was eight years old when he gave his first performance in his London home clad in his mother's favorite tablecloth which he'd made into a costume. Her hand clapping—properly applied—was his only applause. He grew up to become a hotel clerk. Then he became an amateur actor with an ambition to lay American gangster roles on the London stage.

With his small savings as a hotel clerk, he enrolled in the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. For months he listened to phonograph records of American orators to perfect an American accent. He memorized their greatest speeches and could deliver Woodrow Wilson's entire inaugural address. Then his ambition was realized. He was cast in a London play as an American gangster. He played the role so successfully that Gilbert Miller, the Broadway producer, called his London agent to "sign up that American actor and send him home."

It wasn't long before the former hotel clerk was reciting on the screen a great speech he'd learned from a phonograph record—Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The hotel clerk who became a star—the star of the new film hit, "This Land Is Mine"—Charles Laughton.

Understudy's Understudy

This story makes honest men out of fiction writers who love to tell of the little understudy who stepped into the star's shoes. She was only an understudy to the understudy. All his roles were cast when she read a few lines for Max Reinhardt, rehearsing a Hollywood Bowl production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." But he was so impressed with her ability that he asked if she would like to understudy Jean Rouverol, who was understudy for Gloria Stuart in the role of "Hermia." She accepted. Then the understudy, Miss Rouverol, was called away on a motion picture assignment. Came the day before opening of the "Dream" and the star, Miss Stuart was called up for a film role. The understudy to the understudy was the only one left to play the role of Hermia. The rest you know. The understudy to the understudy who became a star—Olivia de Havilland.

Job Accidents

ARTICLE III

The skill and strength of our industrial workers must be guarded against accidents and diseases so as to carry through the war production program. With this end in view Secretary of Labor Perkins' committee to conserve manpower in war industries has compiled a list of do's and don'ts to keep workers from getting hurt. This is the third of a series of articles prepared by the United States Department of Labor so that all workers can check the hazards applying to their own jobs and safeguard life and limb in their own interest and that of war production.

MACHINERY

1. Stop machine or other dangerous operations while listening to instructions.
2. Before cleaning, adjusting, or oiling a machine, make sure that the power is off.
3. Never reach over moving cutters, rolls, or other dangerous machine parts.
4. Always remove chuck wrenches from chucks immediately after they have been used.
5. Stand out of direct line with rapidly moving or revolving machine parts from which objects may fly. Do not stand in line with materials being fed to circular saws or jointers.
6. Always use a push stick when feeding short or narrow work past saws or knives. Keep fingers away from moving machine parts.
7. When operating any machine, do not lean over the work so that your hair or clothing may be caught in any moving part.
8. Do not start any machine unless safeguards are in place and working properly. Machine guards may be removed only to make necessary adjustments and repairs, and must be replaced before the machine is again put into operation. If guards become broken or inoperative, the machine should be shut down until it can again be operated in a fully guarded condition.

Believes American Spokesmen Promise Impossible Things

Chicago, June 18.—(AP)—Dean Albert J. Harno of the University of Illinois college of law declared today he felt "some of the spokesmen for America are failing to make essential distinctions and that they are promising too much for the postwar period—perhaps promising the impossible."

"This does not mean that America should ignore her economic obligations. Indeed, she must do all that she can in the postwar period to relieve distress among the peoples of the earth. But that is a far cry from establishing for them economic, political and religious freedom and equality. That end is not yet attainable."

OPA Unable to Locate Honeymooning Chaplins

Los Angeles, June 18.—(AP)—OPA investigators have been unable to locate Charlie Chaplin, honeymooning with his 18-year-old bride, Oona O'Neill, they reported to Samuel Leask, Jr., southern California OPA director.

But, said Leask last night, "if we don't locate him, we'll subpoena him."

The Office of Price Administration, Leask explained, wants to know the source of gasoline used for the elopement of Chaplin and Miss O'Neill, daughter of playwright Eugene O'Neill, to Santa Barbara county Wednesday.

The investigators, Leask stated, also wish to check reports, unverified, that the wedding party used two automobiles, and that 35-mile speed limit was violated.

Here Is How War Worker Saves 20 Per Cent of Pay

Washington, D. C.—How does a war worker spend his weekly pay? How much does he have left for War Bonds? Parade, a weekly picture newspaper, took the case of George Reich, 26, a Bridgeport, Connecticut, machinist. He has a wife and two children. Two years ago George earned $35 a week. Today he gets $73.50.

Here is how his 1941 and 1943 expenditures and savings compare:

	1941	1943
Rent	$ 4.62	$ 8.76
Food	8.31	17.30
Doctor's bills	1.00	1.00
Insurance	1.71	2.34
Pocket money	1.66	3.70
Home entertainment	2.08	5.08
Movies	.92	.92
Clothing for family	2.83	5.77
Beauty aids	.23	.92
Tools	.58	.82
Contributions	.23	1.15
Gas and oil for car	2.77	2.77
Installation on car	3.69	0.00
Installation on furniture	2.65	0.00
Taxes	0.00	4.50
Jewelry	0.00	1.15
Miscellaneous	1.72	2.32
Savings	0.00	15.00
TOTAL	35.00	73.50

As you can see George and his family live comfortably, in fact better than any family in any country in the world. And yet without any pressure upon himself and his family he has $15 a week left or close to 20 per cent for war bonds.

In one out of every two families in the United States at least two members are working and the Treasury Department has launched a campaign to assist American workers to put war bond payroll savings on a family basis so that aggregate allotments will be 15, 20 or even 30 per cent of the total family income—every dollar not needed for absolute necessities.

Market Lamb Show Opens in Chicago

Chicago, June 18.—(AP)—More than 300 lambs raised by Illinois and Indiana 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America vied for prizes and prizes today at the Chicago Junior Market lamb show and sale in the Union Stock Yards.

A committee of four packer buyers on the Chicago market was named to judge the entries. William R. Walker of Swift & Company and Aubrey Williams of C. A. Kleman, sheep order buyers, were assigned to sort the entire field for best quality lambs.

John O'Brien of Wilson & Company and William E. Duffy of Swift were chosen to single out the prize winners from lambs surviving the earlier eliminations.

Judging was confined to four classes—single lambs and pens of three, five and ten. An auction sale of all entries was arranged to follow the awarding of prizes. All exhibitors were eligible to participate in a sheep shearing contest and a live lamb valuation contest.

The show was sponsored by the Chicago Stock Yards with an advisory committee of Illinois 4-H and F. F. A. leaders, and John S. Campbell, Richmond, Ind., formerly with the United States department of agriculture on the Chicago market.

Scrap Drive Exceeds Quota Says Director

Chicago, June 18.—Illinois answered WPB's request for 167,000 tons of scrap metal from farms, homes and small industries outside the Chicago area by turning in more than 200,000 tons in the spring drive.

Lieut. Gov. Hugh W. Cross, chairman of the conservation committee, Illinois State Council of Defense, said the over-all quota of 1,081,000 tons of scrap metal from Illinois by July 1 in all probability will be met. Nearly 70 per cent of all scrap is provided by big industry.

Lieutenant Governor Cross commended county salvage chairman, local councils of defense and all Illinois residents who participated in the drive. Despite a bad start due to inclement weather the campaign swept past the WPB goal.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Apostle John Emphasizes Love As Quality of True Christian Life

Text: 1 John 2:1-6; 3:18-18; 4:15-17

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
From Peter's counsel concerning the Christian life and his sustaining help to his fellow Christians suffering persecution, we turn now to another great leader of the church, the apostle John. Here, too, we are impressed with the unity of the New Testament writers in the portal of the nature of the Christian life, its sources, and its power. If Peter and Paul, despite their differences on minor matters, wrote almost identically of the Christian life, its qualities and its fruits, John also agrees in everything that is essential, though he gives to everything his own emphasis.

The emphasis that he gives is on love, and inevitably we compare Paul's great chapter on love in 1 Corinthians 13. John's letters, like Paul's make love supreme, and what John has written might be well regarded as a further exposition of Paul's chapter on love.

The student of New Testament literature is well aware of the questions concerning the authorship both of the Fourth Gospel and of the Epistles attributed to John. He knows, too, that some reverent scholars think there is evidence of the early martyrdom of John, contrary to the tradition that he lived to a great old age and was a beloved leader in the church at Ephesus.

Both John's Gospel and the Epistles so thoroughly express both the letter and spirit of Christianity, as these are expressing elsewhere in the New Testament, that the problems of authorship which are a great concern of scholars need hardly affect the average reader. If we found the writings attributed to John expressing something, at variance with what Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and Peter, and Paul had written, then we might well be concerned about their authorship and authenticity.

For our part, we held to the belief that it is John, the beloved apostle, who is speaking, and he speaks as a great apostle of brotherly love. He is plain and practical. Love is not a mere sentiment. It is the power so dominating the Christian life that it is the evidence of the life itself. "We know that we have passed from death into life because we love the brethren."

And it was this John who at one time would have had Jesus call down fire from heaven and consume the people of a village who had treated his Master with unfriendly enmity. How much John had learned, and what a new man he himself had become! He could well say that to be a Christian meant to pass from death into life.

And what happened to him was an evidence of the power of brotherly love. John agrees with Peter that man may be a partaker of the divine nature.

Missionary Prayer band will be held next Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. H. J. Boyenga of Ashton. Mrs. Luther Medder will be the speaker. The missionary activities of The Christian and Missionary Alliance in Columbia, S. America will be the subject under study during the evening. The group will meet at the tabernacle at 7:00 p. m.

Report by Illinois Anti-Blindness Assn.
The Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness reports that no cases of blindness from a birth infection were reported in Illinois last year, for the third consecutive year.

The statement issued by the society credited a bill it sponsored through the state legislature in 1933 for the perfect record. Birth certificates now require that the attending physician indicate what prophylactic treatment was dropped into the baby's eyes at birth.

The proper solution is available without cost through the state health department, the society explained.

Of 154,075 births in the state last year, only 37 cases of birth infection arose, but blindness was prevented in every instance.

Vacation Schools

Finish First Week

The first week of Dixon's community wide vacation Bible school under direction of the Dixon Council of Christian Education ended with today's sessions. A fine response from the children of the community and the various churches has resulted in well organized school. The Thursday attendance indicated 262 at North Central including teachers and helpers, with 331 at South Central school.

The schools are announcing demonstration programs for Friday evening, June 25. The north side school will hold its program at Grace Evangelical church on E. Everett street, while the south side school will hold its in the First Methodist church on Peoria avenue. Certificates will be presented to the children who have perfect attendance during the ten days of the school.

A typical school day finds the children in an opening worship service shortly after 9 a. m. each day. This is followed with Bible stories and one group is studying missionary work in Guatemala. Play, music and memory work provide a variety and the smaller children are provided with a light lunch. The closing periods find the children busy making various articles. This week beginners were making birds and lambs, primary children were making clay pottery and weaving mats, while the juniors were making shepherd dolls from clothes pins, and sail boats. Examples of all these articles will be on display at the demonstration.

New children will be accepted on Monday, but no guarantee of books can be provided after that date. Fourteen churches are co-operating. Workers from practically all of the churches have volunteered in this Christian work. Visitors are welcome in the schools.

Washington

Mr. Justice Senator Office of War Mobilization Director James E. Byrnes has bit off quite a chew for himself in assuming the job of chief government rat-hole watcher, fight stopper, argument setter, confusion remover, trouble shooter extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of sweetness and light, good-will and brotherly love among the bureaucrats in war-time Washington. No wonder he says he doesn't want to be vice president, ever. This job will be a lot more exciting.

Justice Byrnes' announced plan of operation for his new office, particularly as it relates to his ambition to funnel congressional investigations through one senate and one house committee, and to stop inter-departmental rows before they get started fills a long-felt Washington want. Carried to the extreme, this new method of "mobilizing" the war effort might be considered a move towards muzzling the department heads by not letting them make faces at each other, or an effort to suppress the constitutional right of congressmen to get up on their hind legs and complain about the war effort, except before the chosen committees.

It might also lead to a suppression or a reduction of some of the more dramatic news that comes out of the capital. In the eyes of some people, nothing is happening in Washington unless Harold Ickes or Bill Jeffers or John L. Lewis is calling somebody a nasty name, unless the Truman committee is exposing some scandal, or unless the Army is trying to wreck the War Production Board or vice versa.

Bickering Not News
But bickering and controversy do not make the constructive news that should come out of Washington, and a sudden and permanent ending of all such blowoffs under the Byrnes plan should be welcome, just so long as it is not used to cover up administration mistakes, what the congressmen call bureaucratic bungling, and the policy decisions that need full public discussion and airing.

A complete blackout of news on some of the controversial issues now raging in Washington would be a relief, but only if the issues were settled—not if they were simply buried alive.

Consider also the duplication of effort in the various congressional investigations on phases of the civilian war effort:

The senate committee on agriculture had been investigating OPA price roll-backs and subsidies for two weeks, when the matter was taken up by the senate committee on banking and currency. Most of the witnesses are the same. Concurrently, the house small business committee raked the Office of Price Administration policies over the coals of its hot seat, while a house subcommittee on agriculture went after OPA's grade labeling program and a senate small business committee looked into the poultry supply and distribution situation.

Too Much Confusion
OPA is today the hot subject of these five investigations, but before OPA became the center of all this attention it was something else—manpower, or war production, or small business in general, or gasoline, or rubber, or steel, or aluminum.

These things are admittedly all important and maybe they deserve all the attention and abuse showered down upon them. Director Byrnes realizes the complexity of them all and the difficulty in trying to get investigations of all the war problems centered in one committee of the senate and one committee of the house. Congressional investigations are, in general, healthy things. They correct many abuses. But in duplicating each other, they tend often to pile confusion on top of confusion and that is not the obvious way to shovel away a pile of confusion which litters up any front yard.

As a step towards increasing the efficiency of not only the war effort, but of Congress itself, the proposals which Director Byrnes has made constitute a notable step towards the removal of much Washington confusion.

The neatest trick which Mr. Byrnes proposes, however, is to go one step beyond this, have abuses and departmental conflicts called to his attention and corrected before they reach the stage of being so overripe that they require congressional investigations before they can be corrected.

A Thought for Today

I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning; yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.—Amos 4:11.

God dropped a spark down into every, And if we find and fan it to a blaze, It'll spring up and glow, like—the sun, And light the wandering out of stony ways. —Masefield.

Composite World

The United States of America is a composite country. In our area we have many different types of people. There are "Frenchmen" whose fathers were born here—but they can not speak English. We have "colonies" of Russians or descendants of Russians; Germans and their American-born children, and even Chinese groups.

But our laws are not made according to the wishes of any one of these groups. According to the practices of yesterday, if the Germans had control, our official language would be German. If the "Russians" had control, our culture might be different, and the same with the French, Chinese or other groups. Our laws and customs are a composite of the wishes of all groups. For that reason we are like no other people in the world, but in various respects we resemble many of them. The process of representative government has brought us all to a similar standard.

If any group constituted a majority we would have a sudden change in many ways. In a way, we do have a majority in this country. Hitler might refer to us as Aryans, but we are a damnsite different from his Aryan ideal. To be brief, we are largely European stock, with the Anglo-Saxon type predominant. To that extent we are north European in customs, while our language is English.

The world, however, is not peopled largely by northern Europeans. If we are to have a world government with proportionate representation and a dwindling amount of sovereignty for individual countries, we shall have to expect a leveling process. What constitutes the majority group in the world? Asiatic. In which direction would we change? Answer that one yourself.

And so the United States is to dominate the world. Who says so? For every American there are more than 15 others who are not Americans.

When wealth lies loose, what is done to it? It is redistributed in the name of democracy. Who has the wealth today? Who would get it next? Answer that, too.

Both Sides Should Be Happy

Senate and house wanted to enact a law preventing strikes in war industries. Both houses had individual members opposed to such legislation, and the administration, by its record, did not want a stringent law enacted. The result is somewhat flabby and it is calculated to increase the confusion while failing to prevent strikes, walkouts, slowdowns and even sitdowns.

In fact, it is to be doubted whether even a stringent anti-strike law could be enforced for the simple reason that the government can not put five million workers in jail or in the army. It can not do without them in industry.

Labor leaders have been proved incapable of preventing strikes, although they can start 'em with a nod, sometimes. They are required to submit the strike issue to a vote. If the workers want to strike, the leaders are powerless to prevent it.

On the other hand, those who wanted to legislate against strikes in war industries have had an opportunity to vote. They have a measure that is called an "anti-strike" bill. The administration and other opponents have succeeded in making it even less effective than it might have been. Both sides should be happy. We can have an anti-strike bill for the benefit of doctors who prescribe that kind of medicine—but we can also have strikes.

What is needed is effective leadership that can work on the agitators, and such leadership resides in the white house. Another necessity is effective action in the difficulties that cause strikes and unrest. Many strikes are only symptoms of underlying economic evils. As long as the evils persist there will be strikes or their equivalent.

A method of holding prices in line, cutting government costs except in regard to the war and ending the administrative chaos now evident is called for.

There Was a Better Way

In all the comment about Warner Brothers' propaganda film, "Mission to Moscow," none that we have seen strikes closer to the heart of the blunder than an editorial in the Saturday Review of Literature which was initiated by the editor, Norman Cousins.

After discussing the film's terrible mangling both of the original book and of history, and pointing out that this was particularly undesirable because of the semi-official status enjoyed by the film, Mr. Cousins notes the most harmful feature of the producers' error.

The film, as it stands, he says, constitutes an unfounded confession that there is no common ground for understanding between the United States and Soviet Russia, and therefore that it was necessary to fabricate a common ground by presenting a picture of Russia so false that "the whole thing would be laughable if it weren't so tragic."

But in fact, there are ample grounds for mutual respect and friendship which could have been stressed. We are fighting in a common cause, in which the Soviet is making a marvelous showing. "If you want a motion picture that will help Americans to admire the Russian people, let them see what is happening in Russia today," says Mr. Cousins.

"Russia has not been a democracy in the past. But does anyone think that the millions of Russian people who have had to go through such a hell on earth as has never been seen in order to save their country from destruction . . . can be kept from the right to vote after the war? Or the right to make themselves heard?"

"Whether we like it or not; whether the Soviet leaders like it or not, the march of progress toward democratic organization is on in Russia."

The sponsors of this unfortunate film made the same blunder that others have made. They failed to discriminate between the American reaction to Russian heroism, the American appreciation of how much we are profiting from what Russia is doing to Hitler—and our intense dislike for the treacherous tactics of the Communist party, as agent for the now ostensibly defunct Comintern, in this country.

Understanding and friendship never can be founded firmly on lies, half-truths, distortions and suppressions. They must rest upon publicity, not propaganda.

Learning to Travel

"When I get my feet planted in the old home town, you won't see me doing any more traveling," say most of the Americans who have been sent all over the world to fight this global war. But an awful lot of them, having realized how much there is to the world, are going to want to see it again as civilians.

The more adventurous, who will hit for African deserts or sub-Arctic snows, will do well to tuck away copies of the Army's two guidebooks, "Jungle and Desert Emergencies" and "Arctic Emergencies." The latter, second in the series, is filled with such useful information as the fact that polar bears' livers are poisonous, a diet of rabbit will lead to death through "rabbit starvation," but seal hearts and kidneys and broiled reindeer moss are edible.

Fair Enough

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

Chicago — President Roosevelt and Harold Ickes have recently perpetrated in the state of Wyoming an act of annexation which follows the general lines of Adolf Hitler's seizure of Austria. They annexed a tract of 221,610 acres for Ickes' domain by a subterfuge after congress had twice rejected proposals for the same annexation. This was done by means of a trick, which, in the president's own words in another situation some years ago, constitutes a clever little scheme having the color or legality.

The land is in the area known as Jackson Hole, a region of great beauty, abounding in elk and other wild life, and the annexation practically wipes out a county of Wyoming contrary to the expressed desires of the people living there, of the legislature and of the Wyoming delegation in both houses of congress.

There is great indignation in the Capitol in Cheyenne and the attorney general has filed a suit in the federal district court, and Congressman Frank A. Barrett, counter-attacking from another direction, has introduced a bill to revoke a presidential proclamation by which the tract was seized for the department of the interior as a national monument after recurrent proposals to make it into a national park had been thwarted in the open.

A national park can be created only by an act of congress, but a national monument can be established by presidential proclamation without congressional consent. In either a park or a monument private use of land for grazing or any of the other purposes for which the people of Jackson Hole have been using the land is forbidden. The purpose of the department of the interior was to extend the area of the existing Grand Teton National Park, and after this plan had been repeatedly rebuffed in congress, John D. Rockefeller formed a land company in Utah and proceeded quietly to buy up private holdings to the extent of 32,117 acres for preservation to the government as a part of the proposed park.

Testifying before the house committee on public lands in favor of his bill to revoke the presidential annexation, Congressman Barrett stated on May 14 that an officer of the land company admitted that one reason for incorporating the company in another state was to compel any aggrieved citizen of Wyoming to go into the federal courts for his redress. Rockefeller spent $1,400,000 for his land, which was the principal source of tax revenues of Teton county whose existence is now threatened if indeed it is not actually liquidated by the seizure.

As Hitler had eyed Austria for years so the interior department had coveted Jackson Hole, and the justification in both cases was similar. Hitler contended that racially and historically Austria and Germany were one, and the department of the interior argued that Jackson Hole was a national extension of and approach to Grand Teton park.

The law permitting the establishment of national monuments by proclamation, by-passing congress, was plainly intended only to preserve objects of historic and scientific value and provided that land taken for this purpose should be sufficient only to embrace the object and provide for its care. Except in the sense that all American land is historic, this is not a historical monument and no attempt has been made to identify any scientific object. It is now, in fact, the very extension of Grand Teton park which was defeated by congress and opposed by the legislature and succeeding governors and was seized by a process so devious as to mock the government's assurance to the peoples of other lands involved in the war.

On this point, the chairman of the Teton county commissioners wrote: "We can now more deeply sympathize with people of foreign nations whose homes have been taken away like ours."

Ickes, whose position corresponds to that of the nazi governor of Poland, has indicated that he will generously permit the present residents to graze their stock as long as they like, but these people, considering the method of the annexation, are afraid of another clever little scheme.

The state, on its own part, makes a point of its sovereignty and its right to its own property, including 20,000 elk on the range and other game and the fish in the lakes, its right of taxation and other revenues, its investment in roads and other properties and its right to govern this area within its own boundaries.

Even before the annexation, the federal government owned outright 45 per cent of the area of Wyoming and the oil and mineral rights under 18 million acres of homestead lands. Thus, Barrett pointed out, the national government "holds control or dominion" over 75 per cent of the state. This, incidentally, is more or less the status of a number of other western states which are actually, in territory, only fractions of states and are yielding their statehood rapidly to the national government by defaulting their responsibilities and accepting favors

Further 5 Pct. Cut In Consumption of Newsprint Is Asked

WPB Deemed Certain to Order Reduction in Effect July 1st

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—The newspaper industry advisory committee recommended to the War Production Board (WPB) today a further five per cent cut in consumption of newsprint by American newspapers, although some exceptions were suggested for the benefit of small papers.

H. M. Bitner, director of the WPB's newsprint section which yesterday met with the committee, said the recommended cut would be effective July 1 and that the committee at the same time suggested that newspapers' inventories be reduced from the present 75 days to 50 days.

Canadian newspaper manufacturers have promised this country 210,000 tons of newsprint a month, but American demands have been running at the rate of 240,000 tons.

Last December a program worked out by the WPB was expected to achieve a 10 per cent reduction in newsprint consumption, but WPB said the reduction accomplished amounted only to about five per cent.

Thus it would appear today's recommendation would bring consumption into line with the intention of last December's program.

The recommendation, deemed certain to be accepted by WPB, proposes that there be no further cut on the first 25 tons a quarter for papers which consume not more than 500 tons a quarter.

To Help Smaller Papers This exemption was intended to avoid hardships upon the smaller papers. Representatives of larger newspapers, agreed to forego the exemption.

The 5 per cent cut applies to all papers using more than 500 tons a quarter.

The following sliding scale was worked out for papers using from 25 to 500 tons:

Papers using 25 tons a quarter, no cut; 50 tons 2.5 per cent cut; 75 tons 3.3 per cent; 100 tons 3.75 per cent; 200 tons 4.33 per cent; 300 tons 4.60 per cent; 400 tons 4.70 per cent; 500 tons 4.80 per cent.

Exemptions from the limitations on inventory were recommended for areas west of the Rocky Mountains and south of the northern border of North Carolina, where the old 75-day maximum inventory will continue in effect.

To Tide Over Delays

The larger inventories in the west and south are intended to give publishers sufficient supplies to tide them over possible delays or interruptions in transportation.

The advisory committee also recommended to the printing and publishing division that it prepare a plan for the allocation of deliveries of both Canadian and United States newsprint to publishers in this country.

Another suggestion is that competitors of any newspaper which appeals from the newsprint allocation be given notice of the filing of the appeal and be allowed to comment upon it before a decision is made by WPB.

From reliable but unquotable sources it was learned that some members of the industry advisory committee had advised WPB to enforce a cut greater than the 5 per cent figure finally agreed upon.

This reduction is from the consumption level permitted by WPB's first curtailment which was ordered into effect January 1 and which provided that no publisher could use more than 100 per cent of the newsprint tonnage required to produce his net paid circulation in the corresponding quarter of 1941.

The saving expected from the elimination of extra copies and other non-paid production did not materialize, thus resulting in the new cut despite previous assurances that no new curtailment need be expected at least until October 1, the start of the fourth quarter.

COST OF LIVING UP

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins estimated today that the cost of living rose another .8 per cent from mid-April to mid-May, bringing the average cost of living for city workers to a level 7.8 per cent above a year ago and 24.1 per cent above January, 1941.

from Washington for which the new deal always exacts its toll of state sovereignty.

Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney, a new dealer, himself, thought the project had been safely defeated and learned of the annexation when a clerk in his office, looking up another matter in some federal documents, happened on the presidential proclamation.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington — The Supreme Court is running around in legal circles which seem to devolve deeper and deeper.

The confusion of law which has been engendered by its hard fought, close decisions first caused weary head-shaking in the legal profession. Now it is getting chuckles.

What would happen if FDR's court-packing bill had been adopted, and he had appointed 15 justices instead of 7, is an interesting thought to toy with—Justice then probably would have been meted out 8 to 7.

On some legally confusing occasions, the court has ruled that what it decided was justice a short time ago is no longer constitutional, but the opposite is.

In a Pennsylvania school case in 1940, it held (8 to 1) school children could be required to salute the flag, but, in a West Virginia case, it reversed itself (6 to 3) and decreed the opposite.

It has unrelentingly held racketeering is a crime for all citizens unless they belong to a labor union, and has now (May 10) given the Federal Communications Commission the right to determine the contents of radio programs (possibly also of what goes over wires to newspapers).

Frequently, it has denied petition for reviews and then, on a re-hearing petition, reversed itself and granted reviews.

The only explanation is that this 7 to 2 new deal court is volatile and changeable. Apparently, some justices will even vote one way in conference and then, on reflection, change sides.

The other day in a narcotics case, the written opinion announced dissents by two justices. But when reporters inquired for the dissenting opinions, they were informed no dissents had been filed.

The court may have been reformed politically, but legally, it is now more in need of reform than before.

The McKellar bill whopped its way fast through the senate upon the wings of expectation that it would break up the Frankfurter-Mrs. Roosevelt-Hopkins monopoly over new deal patronage, but it is not likely to bring that result any time soon.

General feeling against the typical new dealer in office is stronger in the house than in the senate, but the chances of the bill passing the lower chamber are obviously impeded by the senate assumption of authority in this patronage matter for itself. The house would get none of the gravy. This naturally lessens its interest in the McKellar reform.

A fair, objective analysis would insist that Roosevelt's fears that the bill would break down the civil service system are unfounded, as it specifically is not to apply to any civil service appointee or anyone in the White House or FBI.

From the standpoint of altruism, a standpoint from which no one on any side around here is looking at the proposal, the bill might not make appointments any better, but it would certainly make them different.

Basically, it would just give the senators' friends a chance, which now is exclusively restricted to Roosevelt's friends, the friends of senators might not be much more astute, but they certainly would wear a different school tie.

More important, Roosevelt would veto the bill, and it could not pass over a veto in either house. Thus the existing patronage situation will no doubt continue to the end of time or Roosevelt, whichever occurs first.

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

First Lieut. Edward Murphy medical corps, of Dixon, physically hardened and well trained for duty with troops in the field after six weeks of grueling preparations, today was graduated from the medical service school, Carlisle Barracks, Pa. He has already left for his new station, where he will put into actual practice the military training, medical tactics, military sanitation, logistics, field medicine and surgery, and administration which he learned thoroughly at the "West point" of the medical department.

He was among a class of 465 physicians, dentists, veterinarians, sanitary engineers and medical administrative members who prepared themselves at this army school to convert their professional skills from peacetime to war uses. Lieut. Murphy, 33, received his M. D. degree from the University of Chicago.

Two hundred and eighty-six medical department officers in the graduating class are physicians and 130 are dentists, drawn from 42 states. New York has the largest representation with 118. Pennsylvania was second with 48. Illinois third with 42, and Massachusetts fourth with 25.

Lodges and Patriotic Orders

Dixon Post, No. 12, American Legion, has accepted the invitation of Horace F. Ortt post, No. 540, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to participate in the dedication of the Lee county honor roll in the court house square Sunday afternoon. Legionnaires are requested to assemble at the Legion hall or high school at 1:15 p. m. to participate in the parade and program.

Grain News

Chicago, June 18.—(AP)—Fort Worth, Tex., reported the arrival of 88 cars of new wheat there Wednesday. Of this total, 74 cars graded No. 1 dark hard, 12 cars No. 1 hard and 2 cars No. 2 dark tough.

Reports in the cash grain trade yesterday were that two lake steamers containing Canadian grain were en route from Fort William to Chicago. One said to be the steamer "Leonard," was reported as having 331,000 bushels of oats aboard and the other steamer was understood to have a cargo of 152,000 bushels of barley.

Production of wheat in Texas, on the basis of the government's June 1 crop forecast, would be 25 per cent greater than the 1932-41 average production for the state, but 30 per cent smaller than last year's large crop of 47,438,000 bushels.

A private report to James E. Bennett & Company, grain firm, said that wheat and other small grains show improvement, with good prospects. Corn has made little progress and there has been considerable damage to that grain and to alfalfa, the report stated.

HAZELWOOD IS SETTING FOR FINAL GARDEN LUNCHEON OF DIXON WOMAN'S CLUB THURS.

The final meeting of the Dixon Woman's club at Hazelwood yesterday, was one of the highlights of the year's program, with two hundred members and guests attending the garden luncheon and meeting which followed. The ideal weather permitted the luncheon tables to be spread under the trees on the Hazelwood lawn.

Mrs. Garnett Stephan was hostess chairman, and she and her committee assisted Mrs. Charles Walgreen in the arrangements.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. A. T. Ogren entertained the group with two readings and Donna McCordle played several accordion numbers.

During the business meeting reports of the district convention at Amboy were given by Mrs. Calvin Castle and Mrs. Gavin Dick. They told of the inspirational talks that were given and reported some of the outstanding accomplishments of other clubs in the district.

Miss Esther Barton and Mrs. E. V. Mellott gave reports on the state convention at Chicago. They were especially impressed by the number of speeches and discussions which were crowded into three days. Nearly 2,000 delegates and members were in attendance at the meeting. The decorations were in keeping with the times and consisted of a spectacular grouping of the allied flags with red geraniums as the floral surroundings. The theme of the convention was the importance of women in the world of war on the three fronts of home, church and war service.

Annual reports were given by the retiring officers. Mrs. J. R. McDaniel who has been president for the past two years said she felt the club members had carried out the theme for the year which was the Biblical quotation, "Be ready for any service". Many have gone into industry and nearly all are helping in some kind of Red Cross work.

The club has made contributions to Indian welfare, cancer control and Park Ridge school for girls where Illinois maintains a cottage for twenty-five girls. Money has been given to the Red Cross for war service kits, to the Boy and Girl Scouts, to the Christian Education fund and to bundles for Britain. An acre of trees was purchased in Mason State park and seed was donated for the park board Dixon children's garden.

Members have sold $3020.76 in bonds and stamps from a booth at Scott Stores and also have collected books for the soldiers there. Two programs and refreshments were given at Camp Grant and 90 dozen cookies have been sent there. Knapsack library books have been made.

Over $100 secured from a movie which was sponsored was used for dental work and spectacles for needy children in Dixon. The public welfare department has made and distributed five comforters. The outstanding achievement of the year is the giving of a $250 nurses scholarship fund to some worthy girl in or around Dixon.

Five programs were given by local talent this year. The good neighbor policy has been furthered all through the year by speakers, exhibits and an art appreciation moment each meeting about Latin American art.

Mrs. McDaniel then introduced Miss Barton, the incoming president.

Former Harmon Girl Is Wed In Sterling

Miss Anastasis Hermes, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Hermes of Sterling, formerly of Harmon, and William Robert Brennan of Sioux City, Ia., were united in marriage on Saturday at 9 o'clock at a nuptial mass at St. Mary's Catholic church in Sterling. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. J. Burns officiated at the ceremony.

Organ music was played by Miss Rita Thoman with Mrs. Nicholas McGrath singing Rosewig's "Ave Maria" at the offertory, and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," at the communion service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, A. A. Hermes, was lovely in a white mousseline-de-soie gown with a long train, round neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves. Her flowing fingertip veil fell from a cap of lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Hermes, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Mary Eunice rennan, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. The maid of honor and the bridesmaid wore floor-length blue net gowns with harmonizing and small blue hats with shoulder-length veils. Jordan Hamel, friend of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and the groomsmen were the bride's brother, Joseph Hermes. Ushers were Nicholas McGrath and William McKeown.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Lincoln hotel to 45 guests and in the afternoon, from 2 until 4 o'clock, a reception was held at the Hermes residence at 411 Locust street. Miss Susan Roark and Miss Jane O'Connell, friends of the bride, assisted.

The bride is a graduate of Community high school in Sterling, and of the two-year course at Clarke college in Dubuque, Ia. For the past four years she has been teaching in the rural school in this vicinity. Mr. Brennan is a graduate of Trinity high school and also attended Trinity college in Sioux City. After a wedding trip the young couple will be at home June 21, at Sioux City.

Dr. George D. Fuller, biology professor emeritus, in botany at the University of Chicago, and Dr. and Mrs. G. N. Jones, head of the botany department at the University of Illinois at Urbana, are visiting in Oregon and visiting for the next few days.

Together with Mrs. Alice L. Hills, park naturalist at the White Pines Forest State park, they went to Apple River canyon yesterday, and today will visit Franklin creek in Lee county. Later, the party will meet Enos Keithley at the Hazelwood estate of Mrs. C. R. Walgreen.

Mrs. Rollie Ommen will entertain the Monday Nighters with a scramble supper at Lowell park on Monday, with the supper beginning promptly at 6:30 o'clock. Each member is to bring own table service and a dish to pass. Should anyone be without transportation, they may call Mrs. Ommen after 5 o'clock. Each member is asked to bring their gift to be packed and sent to soldiers.

ROCKFORD GIRL WILL BECOME BRIDE OF PFC. DAVID SMITH OF DIXON IN JULY CEREMONY

A member of this year's graduating class at Rockford college is soon to become the bride of a former teacher who is serving in the armed forces, according to an announcement being made by the bride-elect's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Davey of Rockford, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Beatrice Elizabeth, to Pfc. David M. Smith, son of Mrs. Pearl Smith of Dixon, formerly of Stillman Valley.

The wedding is to take place on Miss Davey's birthday, Monday, July 5, at State Street Evangelical church. The ceremony will be read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

News of the approaching nuptials was told at a party Tuesday evening at the Davey home. The 25 guests included relatives of the future bride and groom and groom and friends of Miss Davey's from Rockford college. The partygoers found the announcement when they completed a question and answer game, which a classmate of Miss Davey's at college, Elaine Paulson, had devised for the affair. A bouquet of mixed flowers centered the refreshment table.

The attractive bride-to-be is a graduate of Rockford high school, and she received her bachelor of arts degree with a major in chemistry from the college at commencement exercises on May 31. On the campus, she served as co-editor of the Handbook and vice president of the Town Students association. She is a member of the Science club.

Pvt. Smith is a graduate of Northern Illinois State college at DeKalb, where he was a member of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity. After graduating, he taught at Chicago Military academy for a year and at schools in Michigan. He entered army service last September and is stationed with an anti-aircraft division of the coast artillery at Camp Stewart, Savannah, Ga. Following their marriage, Pvt. Smith will take his bride to Savannah, where they will make their home.

COMPTON GIRL AND SOLDIER WED IN MASSACHUSETTS

Miss Mary K. Wolf and Sgt. Dale Miller, both of Compton, were married Friday afternoon, June 11, in the Methodist church in Hull, Mass. Chaplain Lloyd Coleman read the single ring ceremony.

Miss Julia Davies was at the organ playing "I Love You Truly" and Lohengrin's Wedding march. The bride wore a wheat and cocoa-brown street dress with turf-tan accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

After the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of Chaplain and Mrs. Coleman in Hull. Chaplain Coleman is a former minister from Compton.

Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Wolf of Lamar, Mo., and Sgt. Miller is the son of Roy C. Miller of Compton. The groom, who has been stationed in Newfoundland for the past year, flew to Boston, Mass., where his bride met him. After a honeymoon in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, Sgt. Miller will return to his foreign base. Mrs. Miller has taught in Compton high school for the past three years, and will resume her duties there in the fall. She will spend the remainder of the summer with her parents in Lamar, Mo.

Annual Picnic to Be Held by South Dixon C. Club

The South Dixon Community club met Tuesday with Mrs. William Shippert, Jr., with the meeting being called to order with group singing. After reading of the minutes and hearing the treasurer's report, the club decided on June 27 for their annual picnic, which will be held at Lowell park. The members and their families are to observe regular picnic rules. The meeting place for the picnic was decided upon at this meeting and will be at the north end of the park.

A new member, Mrs. Robert Shippert, was welcomed into the club Tuesday.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing 500. Those winning prizes were: Mrs. Henry Remmers, Mrs. George Pitzer and Mrs. Donald Koessler.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Noah Beard. Next meeting place is to be announced at a later date.

Expect Decision of dent of the United States must be carried out today just as it was the day we made it."

Washington, June 18—(AP)—A War Labor Board decision throwing the portal-to-portal pay issue into litigation and thereby precipitating a new crisis in the soft coal wage dispute is forecast today by informed sources.

Barring a last minute hitch, these sources which would not permit identification, said the probability is an 8 to 4 WLB vote with the labor members dissenting.

Such a decision, it was said, would be made without prejudice to the rights of members of the United Mine Workers to bring lawsuits under the fair labor standards act to recover travel-time pay, as iron ore miners in the south have done.

The board is expected to vote this morning and announce its decision and accompanying opinions late today. It is understood that this schedule was adopted so that the labor members may have time to prepare a minority report to be announced simultaneously with the majority ruling by the public and the industry members.

The United Mine Workers policy committee was scheduled for a mid-afternoon meeting. It may remain in session to await the WLB's ruling and possibly decide the course to be taken after the present trace extension expires Sunday midnight.

Facing Alternative
UMW President John L. Lewis has refused to recognize the WLB's authority and appeared to be facing the alternative of another tie-up of the nation's soft coal mines or working for Secretary Ickes for the duration of the war while court action is sought.

The WLB had the alternative of going into the merits of the portal-to-portal demand and ordering a definite, general payment. This possibility was reported to have been explored at length. The public members, however, were represented as concluding that in taking such action they would have to calculate travel time on a basis of average travel for a group of workers and that this method would not cover the individual's rights under the wage and hour law.

The government figures, for instance, show average travel time of 48 minutes a day. Some of the workers, therefore, have travel time substantially exceeding 48 minutes and might still have a claim for travel pay if a settlement were made on an average basis.

The issue is whether travel time is working time requiring compensation under the fair labor standards act. A federal circuit court has ruled that it is, but in that case the principal factor involved was in the time in excess of the statutory 40-hour work week.

The soft coal miners have a basic work week of 35 hours, all productive time. Their old contract, which the WLB ordered extended pending settlement of the dispute, provides for time and a half after 35 hours. The miners contend, therefore, that if travel

PMWA AGREED

Springfield, Ill., June 18—(AP)—President Lloyd A. Thrush, of the Progressive Mine Workers of America announced today that the AFL-affiliated union has reached a tentative agreement with the Illinois Coal Producers Association for additional $1.50 portal-to-portal daily pay.

Previously the PMWA had sought a $1.60 portal-to-portal increase. The $1.50 agreement is similar to a temporary pact between Illinois United Mine Workers and the Illinois Coal Operators Association.

Meanwhile Governor Green disclosed he has asked the War Labor Board to approve the $1.50 increase in existing wage scales.
The governor in a statement said he has "urgently requested" WLB Chairman William H. Davis to ratify the increases which he said were "not excessive and could not be considered as having an inflationary effect."

$10,000 Bequeathed Franklin Gr. Woman

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 18.—That out of a net estate of $170,616.68 left by Charlotte Worthington, who died on September 16 last, under her will, Helen Parsons of Franklin Grove, Ill., receives $10,000, is disclosed here today in the Surrogate's court through the filing of an appraisal of the decedent's property with Surrogate Francis D. McGarey.
The Brooklyn Trust Company is the executor of the estate; the gross value of which amounted to $184,519.50, and consisted of interests in realty at No. 716 Gates avenue, $2,500; stocks and bonds, etc., $90,225.48; bonds and mortgages, cash, etc., $58,530.75; miscellaneous, $3,766.56, and deed of trust set up by the testatrix, $28,476.50.

West Brooklyn Motorist Hit by Truck; Injured

Mendota—Irvin Vincent, 18, West Brooklyn, is a patient in the Harris hospital, Mendota, suffering from injuries sustained about 2 o'clock Thursday morning when his automobile, stalled on Route 51 near its intersection with Route 52, north of Mendota, was struck by a "hit-and-run" truck.

Vincent, it was said, was driving to his home after visiting in Mendota. The lights on the car failed, it was reported, and he brought the car to a stop. He was standing alongside the car at the side of the highway when it was sideswiped by the truck which came up from the rear. The driver of the truck drove on without stopping.

The injured youth was brought to the hospital by a passer-by. X-ray examination failed to disclose any fractures.

TO WELCOME ALLIES

London, June 18—(AP)—Reuters said today a rumor of an allied invasion of Sicily had swept the Italian town of Tolmino, in the Julian Alps near the Austrian frontier, and the garrison rushed into the streets "to welcome the end of the war."

Wettest May in Years—
Springfield, Ill., June 18—(AP)—With rainfall averaging 8.77 inches, or 4.67 inches above normal, Illinois experienced the wettest May in 54 years, the weather bureau reported. In some sections, precipitation for the month was 10 inches above normal.

Meat Packers Close Plants—

Cincinnati, June 18—(AP)—Virtually all Greater Cincinnati beef, veal and lamb packing plants were closed today, or in process of closing, because, officials said, they could not operate under federal price ceiling regulations. Four slaughterers were in the latest group, bringing to nine the number suspending this week.

City Gets Tax Fund—

Allotment of $1,412 to Dixon as its share of motor fuel tax receipts for May was announced yesterday by George B. McKibben, state director of finance. The gross allotment to municipalities throughout the state was $897,499, from which $88,142 was deducted as reserve for the $30,000,000 emergency relief bond issue.

Young Mother Improves—

Dr. Floyd L. Blewfield, pastor of the local Methodist church, returned on Thursday from South Haven, Michigan, where he was called the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. James R. Pollock. Mrs. Pollock had a serious relapse after giving birth to a baby girl a couple of weeks ago. Her condition is now much improved, however, and an early recovery is anticipated. Mrs. Blewfield is remaining in South Haven for some time to help in the care of her daughter and new grandchild. The new grandchild of Dr. and Mrs. Blewfield is a girl and has been named Bonnie Lou.

To Test Rental Agency—

An action started in the Lee county Circuit court to test the validity of the Federal Rental Administration of the OPA in the Dixon Defense Rental area, was begun today before Judge George C. Dixon. Charles Merritt, plaintiff in the action, is seeking damages from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart for alleged rental overcharges for a property located at 1029 Peoria avenue. Attorney Robert L. Bracken is appearing for Merritt, while Attorney Mark Keller represents the defendants. John F. Mannier, chief enforcement counsel for the Chicago federal rental administration area, also appeared today and counsel were presenting arguments before the court. The action for damages alleges that the rent was increased from $30 to $45 without application for the increase having been made to the proper rental administration authorities.

'Peace Principles' of Popes Printed by Catholic Church

Chicago, June 18—(AP)—Publication of "Principles for Peace" a 900-page compilation of pronouncements by the recent Popes on peace, war and human rights, was announced today by the Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch, archbishop of Chicago and chairman of the Bishop's Committee on the Pope's Peace Points.

The Vatican documents, in chronological order from 1878 to the present, cover the encyclicals, letters, allocutions and radio broadcasts of Pope Leo XIII, Pius X, Benedict XV, Pius XI and Pius XII.

In the preface Archbishop Stritch said the work presented only the broad principles of peace, not detailed political applications as to specific problems.

"Some may be disappointed," he wrote, "in finding that these statements are not detailed specific applications of principles to particular political problems of our times. They forge that the church recognizes and defends the independence and sovereignty of the state in its own sphere and that the Popes do not enter the domain of statesmen."

Within Own Sphere
"They are the witnesses of religious and moral truth. Peace involves this truth and the popes have spoken within their own sphere, leaving to statesmen to add what is purely social, purely political."

Speaking as an American religious leader, Archbishop Stritch wrote: "Our country has proclaimed its war objectives—the defense of the four freedoms and the making of them the basis for neighborly international collaboration. This is the language of honest peacemakers. We recognize the rights of other nations, large and small, strong and weak. We have no ambition to dominate the world. "We do believe, however, that there is a necessary common denominator in all national institutions and that is the recognition of basic human rights under moral law, and we intend to use our full international influence to securing men everywhere in their native rights."

Charges of Beating State Hospital Man Forwarded to State

Lincoln, Ill., June 18—(AP)—Charges that a Logan county farmer had been beaten severely while a patient at Elgin state hospital were forwarded to state officials today by Logan county State's Attorney Edwin C. Mills.

Mills said Charles Ruwe, who farmed near Lincoln, was found by relatives who visited him at the Elgin hospital to be suffering from black eyes, many contusions and abrasions, and an intracranial hemorrhage.
Ruwe was committed to the institution recently. Ruwe said, when his health broke due to worry over flooding of his farm by excessive rains. The state's attorney said relatives became aware of the injuries when hospital officials wrote Mrs. Ruwe asking permission to perform an operation for removal of a blood clot from the brain.

Mills said the injuries had been confirmed later in a letter from Dr. Charles F. Read, managing officer of the Elgin hospital.
The state's attorney said he asked the state welfare department, Attorney General George F. Barrett and the state's attorney of Kane county to conduct investigations.

Forsbrey, Habitual Criminal, is Dead

New York, June 18—(AP)—The saga of Reynolds Forsbrey—murderer and jailbreaker extraordinary—who once was called America's most dangerous criminal—has ended.
The dark, undersized man died June 10 at Clinton prison, Dannemora, N. Y., where he was serving a life sentence as a fourth offender, it was disclosed yesterday.

Forsbrey, 58, was an habitual criminal, had killed at least three men and had escaped from prison three times. He had spent nearly two-thirds of his life behind bars. In 1931, he was released from Sing Sing by Franklin D. Roosevelt, then governor, in the belief he had been "completely rehabilitated."

Five months later, he was back in prison, convicted of robbery and under a life sentence as a fourth offender.

Japs Call Zoot Suiters Anti-War Isolationists

New York, June 18—(AP)—Japanese propagandists have their own explanation for recent American "zoot suit" incidents.

In a Tokyo broadcast reported today to the Office of War Information, a Japanese commentator declared:

"The American zoot-suiters are isolationists and anti-war fighters. They are strong, courageous young men who have banded together into a nationwide army to express by physical force their disapproval of the war."

Gov. Green Winner

generally expected that Governor Green would sign the consolidation bill promptly. He has made no public statement on the bill, however. The measure was sponsored by Senator T. MacDowning (R-Macomb).

Republicans who changed their earlier "no" votes to "aye" and helped pass the Downing bill were Reps. Noble W. Lee, Chicago, and John C. Friendland, Elgin. To offset the loss of GOP absentees, the bill also picked up the votes of three Chicago Democrats last night. They are Reps. Arthur Quinn, John G. Ryan and Edward J. McCabe.

Republicans voting against the merger were Representatives Robert H. Allison, Pekin; Alan E. Ashcraft, Evanston; Maud N. Peppers, Aurora; Franklin U. Stransky, Savanna; David I. Swanson, Chicago; Bernice T. Van Der Vries, Winnetka; and Frederick W. Rennick, Buda.

Democrats supporting it included W. O. Edwards, Danville; L. C. Harris, Granite City, and Schaefer O'Neill, Alton.

Rep. Harold D. Kelsey (R-Barrington), house sponsor of the merger plan, led the Republican drive that ticked off its victory with apparent ease as Democrats withheld the fireworks that characterized the previous vote.

Budget Bills Beaten
Bills which would have required local governments of all downstate counties to publish detailed information concerning their budgets and expenditures, and hold public hearings before adoption of annual budgets, were defeated overwhelmingly today in the house of representatives.

The bills received 47 affirmative votes, or 30 fewer than the required majority, as most legislators sat silent on roll call.

Principal backer of the legislation was the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, which declared this is one of the few states in the nation having no uniform budgeting and auditing practices among cities, counties, park districts, school districts and other local government units.

Rep. Bernice T. Van Der Vries (R-Winnetka) sponsor of the bills, said they would "promote economy, and give the taxpayers essential information which they can't get under present law."

Rep. Harold Kelsey (R-Barrington) led the opposition, contending the procedures called for would themselves be "too expensive."

Under the bills, local governments would have been required to publish, along with their proposed budgets, a comparison showing amounts actually spent during the preceding two fiscal years for the purposes listed in the budget. They would have been barred from expending money for purposes not included in the budgets.

To Get Delinquent Taxes
The house passed, 101 to 0, a series of bills by Rep. Noble W. Lee (R-Chicago) setting up new machinery for collection of hundreds of millions of dollars of delinquent real estate taxes in all Illinois counties. The bills go to the senate.

They provide that after taxes on a property have been unpaid for ten years, the property shall be offered for sale by the county collector to the highest bidder. If the owner of the property thus sold fails to redeem it by payment of the back taxes within two years, the tax sale purchaser may obtain a fee simple title through the county court.

The bill provides for county court approval of tax sales after hearings.

Under present law, seven years are allowed for redeeming property sold for taxes, and Lee said tax titles now usually are "clouded."

Completion of Pipe

eastward, setting the mid-west back again.

Meanwhile, the huge and increasing military demand will soak up these additional deliveries without leaving any surplus for civilian consumption, as attested by recent official reports that:

1. Our airforce in Great Britain has doubled in the last three months, will be doubled again in the next three, and we also furnish the British with "enormous" quantities of petroleum.

2. Maj. Gen. Jimmy Doolittle's flyers in the Mediterranean area alone used an average of 1,100,000 gallons of gasoline a day over a 15-day period, with fighters burning 100 gallons an hour each and bombers 200.

Gas Stock Critical

Backing up this source's forecast indirectly was a report yesterday by the Bureau of Mines that gasoline stocks now are "rapidly approaching critical levels" everywhere in the country except the west coast.

The informant would make no prediction on the nature or extent of the additional restrictions he said could be expected for the midwest.

AXIS PLANE LOSSES

London, June 18—(AP)—Lord Croft, parliamentary undersecretary for the war office, reported today that 4,198 axis planes were destroyed over Great Britain from the start of the war to June 1.

Anti-Subsidy Plan Aimed at Proposals of Administration

Washington, June 18—(AP)—New anti-subsidy legislation backed by farm organizations today joined a parade of congressional proposals aimed at thwarting administration plans to push prices down by paying the difference out of government funds.

To subsidy opponents, already entrenched in positions ranging from a flat prohibition to limited payments, the latest offering provided a middle ground by forbidding expansion of the present subsidy program without congressional sanction.

The measure was introduced in the house by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich) to amend a bill extending the life of the Commodity Credit corporation so that the agency's funds could not be used for subsidies.

Opposed by Farmers

Meantime, Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) reported that he is considering submission of an identical provision to the senate CCC bill.

Gillette said the new proposal was supported by the National Cooperative Milk Producers federation, the American Farm Bureau, the National Grange and similar groups, which had protested that the government's subsidy program would ruin small producers and reduce output of agricultural commodities.

Organized labor, however, has urged extension of the price-rollback program on butter, meats, coffee and fresh vegetables to most other commodities and enlargement of a $450,000,000 subsidy to $2,000,000,000 to finance price cuts to April, 1942 levels. The alternative, labor representatives insisted, must be relaxation of wage controls to meet higher living expenses.

Allied Preparations

landing craft concentrating from African coasts toward Pantelaria," declared in another report that "large British forces are concentrating along the southern frontier of Turkey."

Allied sources, understandably silent about the next major move, gave no confirmation of this report, which presumably was Italy's interpretation of the closing this week of the Syrian-Turkish border.

Dispatches from Ankara said the frontier was reopened yesterday morning by the British, who for 48 hours had stopped all traffic except allied diplomatic and military personnel.

The Rome radio reported, however, that a 62-mile stretch in northern Syria as well as the coastal area of Lebanon had been declared military areas by the British and had been closed to all traffic and to civilians.

Goebbels Admits Errors
Berlin, taking note of a possible allied lunge from that quarter, reported in a broadcast that Premier-Gen. Nuri Pasheas Said of Iraq had informed his troops of an approaching "hour of decision and active service."

Goebbels' admonition to nazi critics declared that "silence above all should be observed by our noisy critics. In this world no one is infallible and this applies equally well to the government and chiefs of staff who are just as liable to make mistakes as anyone else."

In one of several axis pep talks about the invincibility of continental defenses, a military commentator on the Paris radio told of "an ingenious German method" of setting landing boats ablaze by pouring oil over coastal waters and setting it afire.

The Rome radio gave an indication of the destruction being spread through Italian territory by steady allied bombing. The broadcast said all except 6,000 or 7,000 persons had been evacuated from Cagliari, Sardinian capital, a city with a normal population of nearly 100,000.

American-Canadian Men Inspect Alcohol Plant

Thorold, Ont., June 18—(AP)—American and Canadian officials inspected today a new industrial alcohol plant, developed by the Ontario Paper company, a subsidiary of the Chicago Tribune, to use waste liquor from the manufacture of sulphite pulp.

The 600,000-gallon annual output of the plant will be chiefly exported to the United States for use in that country's synthetic rubber program.

Among those participating in the inspection of the plant, the only one of its type in the Americas, were William A. Jeffers, United States rubber director; Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont); Senator Raymond E. Willson (R-Ind.); Canadian chemical controller E. T. Sterne; and Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune.

The new manufacturing process, although in use in Europe since 1916, never before had been used in the Americas. It involves the distillation of alcohol from waste sulphite liquor, a by-product of the manufacture of sulphite pulp. The waste liquor from the North American Sulphite industry previously has been discharged as waste.

The War Today

quate training.
Well, 32 Japanese dive bombers and 45 Zero fighters were shot down in the fierce engagement, as compared with a loss of six American fighters. That's 13 to 1—and heaven help the Japanese if we ever get what they would call a properly trained air force in the South Pacific.

The reason for the battle was not disclosed for many hours, but by combining information in the dispatches from Leif Erickson, the Associated Press correspondent at an advanced South Pacific base, and statements from Tokyo it can be inferred that a rather large allied convoy was the Japanese objective.

Tokyo said eight vessels, one a destroyer, were sunk, but this was not confirmed by any allied source. The loss of 29 planes also was admitted. On the other hand, Erickson in his dispatches filed not far from the scene of the engagement said only two small freight ships were damaged.

While Guadalcanal is some 3,000 miles from the main Japanese island of Honshu, it is evident the Rising Sun forces fear the concentration of power there because of our proximity to base and airfields they have elsewhere in that area.

One of the main, and still unexplained phases of the battle is how our forces were able to inflict such tremendous damage with so light a loss in men and equipment.

Were the Japanese surprised as they came in high over the area by a stronger force than they expected, or did the planes come, say, from a direction not counted on when the Japanese planned their attack?

American airmen back from the Pacific, who once admitted the skill of the Japanese pilots they fought, now say that the first line men are gone and

Cronin Pinch Hits Four Times, Knocks Three Home Runs

Every Homer Came With Men on Base; Get Two Yesterday

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Joseph Edward Cronin, manager of the Boston Red Sox, will have a new story to tell the soldiers and sailors overseas if he makes another journey abroad for the Red Cross next winter.

The boys will want to hear again about the time the Philadelphia Athletics came to Boston for a five game series during which Cronin made four appearances as a pinchhitter and produced three home runs, every one with two teammates abroad.

Cronin will start his story with that doubleheader on June 15, a Tuesday. His Red Sox lost both games, but the red checked Irishman brightened the first game by parking one of Lum Harris' knuckle ball pitches in the stand in the seventh inning.

This will lead up to the climax on Thursday, when he reached the peak in pinch-hitting—a home run in each game of a doubleheader.

The A's had a 4-1 lead in the seventh inning of the first game when abe Barna and Skeeter Newsome got on base and Cronin came up against Russ Christopher. Quickly he rifled a drive into the stands to tie the score, and the Sox went on to a 5-4 victory.

In the second game the A's were winning 8-4 when Cronin came up against Rookie Don Black in the eighth inning with Bobby Doerr and Newsome on base. It was the same story, except that Boston didn't get any more runs and the A's won the second game, 8-7.

Winning the nightcap lifted the A's into third place in the American league because Detroit dropped a twilight-night doubleheader to the Cleveland Indians 3-2 and 6-5, the second game going 12 innings.

The New York Yankees were given a 9-8 decision over the Washington Senators in a ragged game in which the winning run was forced across on a walk by Carly Wynn with the bases loaded in the ninth.

Appling Beats Browns
Luke Appling enabled the Chicago White Sox to nose out the St. Louis Browns 4-3 in 13 innings. He doubled for two runs to tie the score in the ninth and singled home the winning run four frames later.

Cincinnati set down the St. Louis Cardinals 6-1 and moved closer to second place in the National league as Elmer Riddle pitched five-hit ball and Gee Walker drove in three of the Reds' runs.

Giants Sweep Series
The New York Giants completed a sweep of their three-game series with the Brooklyn Dodgers by winning 8-5 on the impetus of a five-run first inning against Kirby Higbe.

The Chicago Cubs were held to four hits, but one of them was a three-run homer by Ival Goodman and brought them a 3-2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who made just six safeties off Paul Darringer.

Philadelphia and Boston divided a doubleheader, the Braves taking the first game 2-0 on the four-hit hurling of Manny Salvo and the hillies bagging the nightcap 7-2 with a 13-hit attack.

Irish Have Material
For 1943 Football
South Bend, Ind., June 18—(AP)—On the collegiate gridirons, look out for Notre Dame next fall. The Irish, always tough, apparently will have no woes regarding player shortages, because:

John Kulbitski, Minnesota's regular fullback last year, has been ordered by the Marine corps to report at Notre Dame for his special training course starting July 1.

So has MacWenskunas, Illinois' fine center on its rejuvenated 1942 team.

Likewise Julius Rajkovich, brilliant Iliini freshman.

Ditto these players from Notre Dame's varsity and freshman squads of a year ago: Pass-slinging Angelo Bertelli, tackle Ziggy Czaroski, ends John Yonaker and Paul Limont; Capt. Pat Filley, a guard, and quarterback John Jack, star of the Irish freshman team.

Bertelli and Filley, who will enter the summer term as seniors, are expected to remain at Notre Dame only through Oct. 25, which means they will be able to play only in the first five football games.

Brewers Take 2nd Spot In Association, Beat Millers 4 to 0

(By The Associated Press)

Round 1 in the great Milwaukee-Minneapolis battle for second place in the American Association goes to Milwaukee—a by a knock-down and a shutout.

The Brewers took the first contest of the "crucial" five-game series last night by slugging out two home runs, a triple, a double and three singles while jittery Joe Berry was holding the Millers scoreless on a skimpily four-hit allowance. The score was 4 to 0.

Milwaukee teed off in the second inning when Bill Norman smashed a home run with no one on base. Tony York tripled in the third and Hershel Martin followed with another homer.

In the fourth Norman doubled, moved to third on Heinz Becker's single and came home while Don Johnson was forcing Becker at second.

Outcome Breaks Tie
The outcome broke a tie between the two teams and gave Milwaukee a one game edge on second place. But the Brewers slipped a half-game further out of the lead as pace-setting Indianapolis swept a doubleheader from the declining Toledo Mudhens.

The Indians, in scoring their 22nd and 23rd victories of the season against only 12 defeats, clipped the Hens 4 to 2 in the seven-inning opener and dashed away with a 6 to 0 triumph in the nightcap behind Lefty Jimmy Trexler's three-hit pitching.

Indianapolis sewed up the second encounter with a four-run burst in the first inning and coasted in. The tribe broke a 2-2 deadlock in the first contest on Eddie Morgan's sixth inning single which scored two mates.

The Columbus Red Birds, holding tight in fourth place, defeated Louisville, 2 to 0, by defeating two of their four hits, plus a base on balls, in the eighth inning and scoring both runs. The winning markers were driven in by pinch-hitter Joe Garagiola, who doubled with Emil Verban and Tom Heath on base.

Kansas City and St. Paul were not scheduled.

Occupational Runs at Hawthorne This P. M.

Chicago, June 18—(AP)—Occupation, juvenile champion of 1942, is scheduled to make his first start as a 3-year-old today in a six furlong dash which will top the Lincoln Fields program at Hawthorne.

It will be Occupation's first start since the Pimlico Futurity last fall, after which the colt was retired because of foot trouble. The thoroughbred is regarded as one of three potentially dangerous three year olds, which, because of injuries, have been unable yet to challenge Count Fleet's supremacy in their division.

Owner John Marsch of Chicago decided it would be better to give the colt plenty of time to come back to racing rather than attempt to rush him into the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. Consequently, the Arlington Classic and the American Derby will be the major objectives to which Occupation will be pointed. The Arlington park meeting will open Monday at its sister course, Washington Park.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 18.—(AP)—Here it is past the middle of June and there hasn't been a major golf tournament yet—which makes it the first June without one since the other World War. . . . The Hale America tourney filled the gap last year when the National Open was abandoned. . . . Although the Yankees-Senators race is about the hottest thing in baseball right now and Washington is about the hottest town (without reference to weather), the Yanks won't return to the Capital until Sept. 17. . . . Richmond University, which nearly quit football when Coach Johnny Penlon went into the service, is due to get a batch of good players July 1 when the Navy moves in. The consignment may include most of the mighty William & Mary team. . . . And word from the midwest is that a large part of Minnesota's 1942 team will wind up as Marine trainees at Northwestern.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Hap Burgess, Sioux City (Ia.) Journal: "To be a Cub fan these days is to be a man with the patience of Job, the wisdom of Plato, the optimism of the average taxpayer, and the foolhardiness of Hitler when he decided to take on Uncle Sam for a return bout."

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Clark Griffith, who ought to know, says that Ty Cobb was a far better base stealer than George Case but Case is a faster runner. Griff says he had timed Case at 9.8 for 100 yards in a baseball uniform. . . . While Billy Talbert and Pancho Segura appear to be starting a summer-long rivalry for the top tennis spot, Sam Hardy argues that Bobby Falkenberg is the best prospect who is likely to perform this season. Bobby, he says, is "natural fighter who reminds me of Billy Johnston."

BOOK REVIEW

Just received from Clay Center, Kas.—Wylie's Fishing Calculator, thirty odd pages of charts, graphs and instructions telling you just what days to fish and what time of day they'll be biting—But not a word on where to find the fish or how to get there. . . . What the heck, Mr. Wylie, we can't catch 'em in Sixth avenue.

SERVICE DEPT.

Major James P. Muri, 24-year-old commander of the "Wildcat" squadron at Elgin Field, Fla., doesn't appear to be any prouder of the distinguished service cross he received for sinking a Jap aircraft carrier off Midway than he is of the Wildcats' athletic achievements. It isn't entirely surprising, for Major Muri was an all-state football and basketball player at Miles City, Mont., a few years ago and the Wildcats have won every sports tournament or league on the base.

Pete Cawthon Appointed Head Coach of Dodgers

Tuscaloosa, Ala., June 18—(AP)—Pete Cawthon, newly appointed head coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers of the National Professional Football league, has been granted a leave of absence from the University of Alabama, where he was assistant football coach and will assume his new duties immediately. It was announced today.

Cawthon said his appointment as coach of the Dodgers was made yesterday by Dan Topping Jr., the club's owner. Cawthon was formerly head football coach at Texas Tech.

Bartholomew's Funeral Services Tomorrow

Springfield, Ill., June 18—(AP)—Funeral services will be held here tomorrow for Homer (Buster) Bartholomew, 52, principal and athletic coach at Bath-Lynchburg community high school at Bath.

Bartholomew, formerly coach at New Berlin and Chatam high schools and widely known as a prep sports official, died yesterday after a week's illness.

Paul Dean Thinks of Quitting Baseball

Chicago, June 18—(AP)—Paul Dean, who used to barrel in fast balls for the St. Louis Cardinals when he and his brother, Dizzy, were in their pitching prime, is thinking about giving up baseball to run a barrel factory.

Dean has pitched only 13 1-3 innings for the St. Louis Browns this year and has gone to St. Louis to confer with Vice President Bill De Witt.

Hal Trosky Returns to Cleveland Today After Long Illness

Chicago, June 18—(AP)—Hal Trosky, former Cleveland first baseman, was ready today to end his self-imposed retirement from baseball and return to the Indians' lineup where he established a nine-year batting average of .313.

The 31-year-old veteran, no longer suffering from severe migraine headaches which forced him to retire before the start of the 1942 season, awaited the appearance at Comiskey park of Manager Lou Boudreau of the tribe, which opens a series with the Chicago White Sox tonight.

Practicing With Browns

Trosky came here yesterday from his farm home at Norway, Ia., and worked out with the St. Louis Browns. He is 20 pounds lighter—down to about 185 pounds—than when he last appeared in an Indian uniform in 1941.

"I'm not suffering from migraine headaches like I formerly did", Trosky said. "My troubles seemed to have disappeared entirely".

The Indians last winter urged Trosky to return after Les Fleming, who succeeded Trosky last season and hit .292, elected to remain in war work in the west coast shipyards. At that time, however, Trosky's headaches and the problems involved in the operation of his Iowa farm caused him to decline.

Widow of Danny Dodge Is To Wed Third Time

Detroit, June 18.—(AP)—The Detroit News reported today that Annie Laurine McDonald Dodge, widow of Danny Dodge, son of the late John F. Dodge, automobile manufacturer, and Capt. John W. Van Natta, Jr., of Lafayette, Ind., planned to be married this afternoon in Indiana.

Capt. Van Natta, attached to the ordnance department, was transferred here last September when the department's tank automotive center was moved here from the Aberdeen, Md., proving ground. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Van Natta of Lafayette and a graduate in engineering from Purdue university.

Mrs. Dodge's first marriage ended in sudden tragedy when Danny Dodge drowned during their Canadian honeymoon. Her second marital venture, with Dr. William A. Lange, was culminated in the divorce courts recently.

Favorites Have Easy Times Yesterday in Nat. Tennis Tourney

Detroit, June 18.—(AP)—By the luck of the draw, top-seeded Billy Talbert of Cincinnati and fourth-ranking Earl Cochell of Los Angeles were matched today with home-state opponents in a fight for semi-final berths in the 33rd National Clay Courts Tennis championships.

Talbert's opponent was big Bob Faught, Notre Dame player from Cleveland, and Cochell was lined up with 18-year-old Charles Hubbard of Long Beach, Calif. In an unbroken string of successes by seeded players, Talbert and Cochell both were expected to win, and so were defending champion Seymour Greenberg and Jimmy Evert of Chicago.

Meantime, Pauline Betz of Los Angeles, who won the clay courts in 1941 when it last was contested, sought to reach the finals in the women's division by turning back Pearl Peterson of Detroit. The other place in Sunday's finals is occupied by Nancy Corbett of Chicago, who yesterday defeated Mary Hernando of Detroit, 6-0, 3-6, 7-5.

Greenberg-Evert Win

Greenberg evidently had a soft touch in Leonard Karples of Detroit, Evert, Notre Dame's top performer who last defeated Edwin Fox of Detroit, encountered Frank Beeman, Michigan State college star from Detroit.

In men's and women's doubles, competition reached the semi-final stage today with outstanding favorites unshaken. Talbert and Greenberg were the class of the men's division, and Miss Betz and Miss Corbett looked practically unbeatable in the feminine brackets.

Springfield Strikers Return to Their Jobs

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—(AP) Employees on all shifts returned to work last night and today at the two Springfield plants of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company, where a dispute between rival unions this week tied up war production for two days.

Company officials said a rough survey indicated all workers returned to their jobs after members of district 50, United Mine Workers of America, voted to cease picketing and resume work, pending a decision by the War Labor Board on their demand for an election to determine a union bargaining agent.

Pastor Resigns

At the close of the morning services Sunday at the Methodist church, Rev. T. B. Reeves announced to his congregation that he was resigning his pastorate here effective with the close of the conference year which ends the last Sunday in June to take a charge in Chicago.

The church is on Chicago's west side and is well located to afford Rev. Reeves direct transportation to Evanston where he is studying at Garrett Biblical Institute. The new charge also represents a considerable advancement for Rev. Reeves.

Rev. Reeves' announcement came as a surprise to his congregation, for at the recent annual church meeting the members had voted unanimously for his return.

Rev. Reeves came to Franklin Grove the first of August, 1941, from Carmen, Okla., to take over the pastorate of the Ashton and Franklin Grove Methodist churches following Rev. Ralph M. Dregger, who resigned in June of that year to go to a church in Clovis, Calif.

Rev. Reeves, a native of Texas and a graduate of Oklahoma City university has been in the ministry 11 years. Upon coming to Franklin Grove from Oklahoma he enrolled at Garrett for advanced study and has been attending classes in Evanston during his pastorate here.

Though the Reeves will be missed by their many friends in the church and in the community, the best wishes of all go with them to their new charge.

London.—(AP)—King George VI is a monarch who believes in getting around. Since the outbreak of the war he has made 252 railway journeys totalling 36,000 miles.

He has made these wartime trips of inspection in all kinds of weather, and sometimes in air raids. Once when there was two feet of snow on the ground a raid began and the royal train made a dash for the shelter of a tunnel.

Payroll Savings Buys Comfort For Your Fighting Relatives

Not all of your payroll savings and other War Bond purchases are used for tanks, planes and gunpowder. A part of your investment goes for the comfort of your father, brother, son or friend.

Put your war bond buying through your payroll savings plan on a family basis to do the most effective job in providing for the care and safety of your men in the armed forces. Figure it out for yourself how much beyond 10 per cent of the aggregate income of your family you can put into war bonds above the cost of the necessities of life.

Remember a single $18.75 war bond will buy for a fighting soldier on the front: Two cotton undershirts at 44 cents; two pairs of cotton shorts at 76 cents; two pairs of cotton socks at 34 cents; one pair of shoes at $4.31; a cotton khaki shirt at $4.64; pair of twill trousers at $4.16; one web waist belt at 23 cents; two cotton neckties at 44 cents; 2 khaki caps at $1.26 and one twill jacket at $2.16. Total $18.74.

An $18.75 war bond should make a marine comfortable for the night with a 23-pound mattress at $4.20; two blankets at $12.54; a pillow at 56 cents and two pillow cases at 30 cents. Total $18.60.

Or he could be provided with a rubber poncho at $4.77; a helmet with its lining and other items of its assembly at $5.62; a rifle cartridge belt at $2.15; a marine corps pack consisting of haversack, knapsack and suspenders at $5.10; a canteen and its cover at $1.05. Total $18.69.

Those of you who worry about the comfort of your boy in service can help insure his comfort by buying war bonds. And 10 years from now you'll take back $25 for every $18.75 you put in.

FOR FLOOD CONTROL

Washington, June 18—(AP)—Senator Scott Lucas (D-Ill.) has announced a war department agreement to make $1,000,000 available under the flood control act for apportionment among various engineering districts affected by floods recently.

IT'S finally happened! There's a telephone "booth" in Dixon where you can go this summer and be absolutely sure you'll be cool even if it's 110 in the shade. The installation is in the Lee County Cold Storage company's locker room in Dixon. The primary purpose, of course, is to protect the patrons if the unprecedented should happen and the locker door stick sometime when someone is inside. The phone is connected with the central office just as your own is at home. So get out a couple of fur coats and call in cool comfort this summer!

STONY POINT school (just east of Dixon, has combined pleasure and patriotism with regular school work this year. Twenty-six boys from the district are in the service and during the year the students have collected and kept their pictures and have sent them letters or kept in contact with them some way. If every school followed Stony Point's plan there wouldn't be so many lonesome boys away from home waiting for a letter that doesn't come!

THERE'S a little booklet which was given out at the Palmyra Grange the other night entitled, "Safety Guide for the Farm and Home Front" which deserves a place in every farm home. It's a thought-provoker safety pamphlet published by General Mills, Minneapolis. You may send for it individually or you may ask for a number to be given to some organization.

LISTEN to this excerpt from the "Safety Guide":
1. Go less, sleep more.
2. Ride less, walk more.
3. Talk less, think more.
4. Scold less, praise more.
5. Waste less, give more.
6. Eat less, chew more.
7. Cloth less, bathe more.
8. Idle less, play more.
9. Worry less, laugh more.
10. Preach less, practice more.

OREGON Girl Scouts have constructed an interesting and lasting memorial for themselves in the public library. A couple of years ago the girls in this grade collected about eighty butterflies and moths of nearly fifty varieties. These ranged from the beautiful polyphemus and the luna through the smaller kinds and even included a "walking stick" and a few beetles. Finally they mounted them in two cases—in many instances showing both the front and back sides—and last summer the collection was presented to the Oregon Public Library. The mountings are hung just back of the loan desk and for years to come people will study "butterflies" and borrow books at the same time in Oregon—thanks to the Girl Scouts!

NOW the sixth grade girls are working on an herbarium for the Oregon library—they have over a hundred specimens collected, pressed and mounted at the present time. During this summer they are planning to continue work on the project. Mrs. Alice Hills of the White Pines State park will help them. Leaders for these groups of civic-minded sixth-graders are Miss Gladys Thomas and Miss Frances Smith.

OREGON Girl Scouts claimed another distinction this year when ALL ten of the eighth grade troop earned their first class badges. They majored in home-making and made scrapbooks and repaired toys. They worked on layettes for the Warmolts Clinic and took care of children for their child-care badges. Credit to Miss Flora Blomquist and Mrs. John Leddy—Oregon is a better place and these girls are better Scouts because of your leadership!

They'll Do It Every Time

TODAY on the HOME FRONT

by JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, June 18—(AP)—Who can spare the 12 billion dollars which Secretary Morgenthau wants to raise by new tax legislation?

That's a big question here now: How to gear new taxes or forced savings) to ability to pay?

Even if new levies take the form of compulsory savings—to be returned to the taxpayer after the war, the question still pops up: Who can spare the money?

The search for an answer turns around the matter of deductions and exemptions.

Morgenthau has said that after the war there should be a more accurate conception of taxable income "giving more adequate recognition to expenses involved in securing our income and variations in the cost of providing a basic living standard."

A lot of people say that ought to be done right now.

Most of the suggestions for bigger deductions in figuring income taxes seem to fall into three sections:

1. For fixed commitments—Like paying for a house, insurance, premiums, payment of old debts.
 2. For unusual expenses—illness, accident, death.
 3. For children over 18 who still are in school.
- Senator Bridges (R-NH) already has introduced legislation which if enacted would grant a deduction from income taxes for life insurance premiums—on policies in force on Dec. 7, 1941—up to $1,000 or 10 per cent of net income, whichever is lower.
- Some tax authorities have suggested a lump sum deduction for housing, on the theory that the present law is unfair to renters; home owners are able to deduct real estate taxes; renters who help pay them get no such deduction.
- The law already provides a deduction for medical expenses over and above 5 per cent of net income. Some persons argue, therefore, that all medical expenses should be deductible.

Regional Civilian Defense Conference in Dixon June 27-28

Chicago, June 18—A series of conferences for zone, regional, district and county civilian defense directors was announced today by the Illinois State Council of Defense.

The first of the conferences will be held in Zone 1 which includes the northern portion of Illinois outside the Chicago area. The state has been divided into three zones, nine regions, 35 districts and 100 counties by the state council.

Zone 1 conferences are scheduled as follows:

Region 3, Pontiac, June 26; region 2, Dixon, June 27; and region 1, Elgin, June 28.

Maj. Gen. Frank Parker, executive director of the council, and executive staff members will conduct the sessions. General Parker said the purpose of the conferences is to discuss present and future civilian defense activity.
